Introduction to Project

The project aims to spread awareness and strength of the internet and AI in the rural parts of our country. Our website aims solve the problems faced by the people who live in rural areas. Our website has features like online voting, digital map and many many more solutions.

The problem the project aims to solve

In rural India, daily life is often characterized by a complex interplay of challenges and hardships. Farmers get lowballed and are forced to sell to a few middlemen and agents who are in the village. The MLAs and other representatives pocket the money which they receive from the government which was supposed to be used for the betterment of people.

- People visiting the village don't know where to go as there is no clear map of the village.
- An announcement can take a long time to reach all the people of the village and sometimes the announcements get misinterpreted which can lead to a lot of confusion among the villagers.
- In large villages, people living on the outskirts have no idea about what is going on in the village.
- Inadequate healthcare facilities and a lack of proper medical infrastructure mean that illnesses and injuries can lead to significant suffering and even loss of life.
